

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What will be the exam fees if I take the PMP exam through this Paper Based Testing Event?

The fee structure for PMP Paper Based Testing –

PMI Member Fee – USD 250 and Non Member Fee -USD 400

Through this Group Testing option, PMI would like to make it convenient for candidates to take the exam on a weekend, and at the city of your convenience.

2. How do I complete the application?

The credential application is available online at www.pmi.org/Certification.aspx . Click on the "Apply for a Credential" button on the certification web page. Please note that any missing information on the application will delay processing.

3. How is this application process different from the normal Computer Based Testing(CBT) currently offered by Prometric Testing Centres, and how do I schedule the exam?

Actually there is no difference between the payment screen between Computer Based Testing(CBT) and Paper Based Testing(PBT) except, PBT candidate must enter the specific group testing number in order to be registered for this event. You will be asked if you are sitting for CBT or PBT testing. You should select PBT testing and then follow screen.

After application approval & payment processing, you will receive a confirmation email containing your eligibility code.

You should forward this eligibility code to pbt.india@pmi.org in the format given below.

First Name	Last Name	Email ID	Mobile Number	Eligibility Code	PBT Exam City

4. What supporting documentation should I send with my application?

When submitting an application, you do not need to send any documentation. However, you will be required to send supporting documentation if your application is selected for a random audit. To find out more about PMI's audit process, refer to the credential handbook and the audit FAQs.

5. If I have any further questions, whom should I contact?

Please write to pbt.india@pmi.org OR call the PMI India Service Centre at 0124-4517140 for queries, if any.

6. How will the exam scoring happen and when will the results be declared?

The PBT Examination Answer sheet is computer scanned and graded. Examination results take upto six weeks to process and post online. You can access your examination reports using PMI's online certification system. Exam reports will only be mailed if requested by the candidate.
